OUR CORRESPONDENTS.

Thurston Tide.

(Echoes from the "Fourth" at Campbell.)

Campbell did herself proud. There is no doubt but she can celebrate.

The address was a very patriotic and able effort.

The program was well executed.

E. M. Welsh is a dandy marshal.

The fakirs were noisy, cheeky and obtrusive, as became solid and robust fakirs.

The fanatics were unique and caused no end of merriment.

Mike Sherer made several new acquaintances at the celebration.

"Oc" wore a smile of prodigious dimensions.

The platform dances furnished interesting displays for the students of anatomy.

The merry-go-round was not entirely monopolized by the children, an occasional gray head could be seen in the giddy whirl.

"Clint" Keith displayed shining abilities as a "masher."

We noticed Mr. B. H. Woodhouse with some strange calico on each arm.

The young man who holds the right hand of his "gal" with his left hand and uses his own right hand to put gingerbread between her rosy lips was in town in full force.

What Campbell needed last Tuesday was a few hitching posts of sufficient strength to hold up the weary ones.

Some of our citizens were accompanied home by jags of a more or less robust nature.

The young man who drove home by the tugs, while the reins dragged on the ground, may be congratulated on the success of his experiment.

(Other Items.)

John R. Vose has returned from the Columbian exposition.

Miss Elsie Harman is the guest of Miss Minnie Alderman.

A new and commodious stage has appeared on the Campbell, Thurston and Risingville mail route.

John A. Filkins is on the sick list.

J. D. Parker is placing a substantial stone wall under his large barn.

Our postmaster is looking for a bicycle that don't kick.

Robert C. Vose, a lifelong resident of this place, died of heart disease in the city of Buffalo, Friday evening, the 28th ult. Mr. Vose had been a general merchant in this place for many years. For the last three years he had lived in Buffalo most of the time. The remains were brought to this place and laid to rest, Monday, the 3d inst. His wife and four daughters survive him. The daughters are: Mrs. Harvey Stone of Thurston, N. Y.; Mrs. T. R. Congdon of New York city, Mrs. C. E. McDowell of New York city, Mrs. F. Dimmick of Buffalo, N. Y. Mrs. A. B. Chapman of this place is a sister of the deceased. Mr. Vose was 64 years of age.

July 5, 1893.

"CORPORAL."

Curtis Chips.

Samuel B. Balcom is home spending the "Fourth."

A new foundation is being put under the engine at the tannery of the U. S. Leather Co. They expect to commence work at the tannery again Thursday night.

The wedding we spoke of last week failed to materialize.

Everybody from Curtis spent the Fourth in Campbell and all had a glorious time.

A pleasant gathering of relatives was held at the residence of Mrs. Dorcas Chapin, July 4th. Among those present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chapin and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wallis and daughter of Elmira; Mr. and Mrs. L. Halm and Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Godley of Corning. H.

Bradford Beacon.

A number of our people attended the celebration at Campbell, Hammondsport and Weston. All report a good time; but they are, oh! so weary.

Daniel Albright spent the Fourth at his home in Pulteney.

Mack Steegar was in Dundee on business last week.

Rev. Uri Mulford and L. E. Bartholomew returned Tuesday from Canisteo.

Mrs. Dr. Switzer has been confined to her home for ten days on account of trouble with her eyes.

Joseph Bartholomew was in Bath one day last week.

Rev. William Grover returned last week from a short vacation.

Misses Caroline and Reta Switzer visited in Corning and Elmira last week.

Master Harry Morgan of Peach Orchard, is visiting his uncle, Fred Morgan.

Miss May White of Corning, made a short visit with her uncle, Chas. Ide, week before last.

Harry Maring of Corning, was in town last week.

The private party at King's hall, last Friday evening, was a decided success, about twenty couples being present.

E. L. Knowles of Campbell, was in town a few days last week, getting ready for the celebration at Campbell.

Willis French and Miss Mate Whitehead, both of this place, were married at Keuka by the Rev. Mr. Stanton. May they have a long and prosperous married life is the wish of their many friends.

July 5, 1893.

J. B. K. H.

Risingville Rumor.

C. K. Yost of Hornellsville, called on relatives in this vicinity, Sunday.

L. G. Lynn is moving some of the goods of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Wygant to Bath.

Mrs. E. Abel and daughter of Campbell, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Grigg on Sunday last.

R. H. Abbott of Kern, N. Y., has been spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Abbott.

Millard Morrow has been spending a few days in Corning.

An organ has been placed in the Good Templars' hall on trial.

July 5, 1893.

"KITTYE."

—President Cleveland has called an extra session of Congress to convene August 7th.

East Campbell Ends.

Mrs. George Autmiller visited Mrs. Bradford Wilcox, last Wednesday.

F. C. Prince furnished music for the Adams Hose Co., at Painted Post, last Sunday.

Daniel Duvall was around last week, completing his work as assessor.

William Slater is now prepared to furnish Thorley's food to the public.

The school here is growing (smaller). There has not been a single scholar in attendance for two weeks.

Mrs. Ira White visited her parents last Sunday.

Henry Snyder was the guest of George Autmiller, last Sunday.

Many people watched the Erie wrecking train clear the tracks on Sunday.

Mrs. Arthur Bennett visited her mother, Mrs. May, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Thomas and daughter called on James Sawyer at Corning.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Palmer of Elmira, are visiting Mrs. Palmer's parents.

Cora Autmiller of Painted Post, was home on Sunday.

July 5, 1893. MACK.

Coopers Catnip.

Miss Maud Hathaway of Hornellsville, is visiting the Misses Barkley.

Will Taylor killed a rattlesnake having twelve rattles, last Sunday morning.

Harmon Stevens attended the 30th anniversary of the battle of Gettysburgh the 1st, 2d and 3d inst.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Barkley and children of Hornellsville, are spending a week with Mrs. Barkley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Dunklee.

The wife of Delos Fancher died at her home in Hornby, June 30th. She leaves three daughters, a Mrs. Stevens of Painted Post, and Misses Dice and Mattie Fancher of Hornby. The deceased was a worthy woman and much respected by her acquaintances. Mr. Fancher and family were formerly residents of Coopers.

One more called from our midst. The estimable wife of Mahlon Clark—passed away this morning (Wednesday). She leaves besides her husband, two small children to mourn her loss. Further particulars in our next.

July 5, 1893. "DIDO."

—The Prattsburgh band contributed no small part to the general enjoyment of Independence Day. The band is composed of very good musicians, and a more gentlemanly lot of fellows were never given the freedom of our city. The residents of Campbell would like to see this band contest for the much talked of championship of Steuben county. Surely, if deportment and general appearance would count for anything, the other bands of Steuben county would have a good model to pattern after.

—Cleveland Democrats seem to be in the majority in the second district county Democratic committee. Of course; we expected that; Cleveland has some offices to fill and is hunting for men to fill the offices.

THE SUCCESS OF OUR CELEBRATION.

Tuesday was an ideal Fourth of July. The weather was as near perfect as could be desired, neither too cold nor too warm, neither too sultry nor too windy. It was just right and could not have been better had the persons in charge of the celebration sent in an order to the clerk of the weather in advance.

The celebration of our nation's liberty began promptly at midnight, Monday night, and the sun was beginning to make its appearance in the east on Wednesday before the last firecracker was fired, and the dancers ceased to dance.

Early in the day the people began to arrive, and at noon the streets were thronged with the residents of this and surrounding towns, who were intent on a day of pleasure. At 10 o'clock the Prattsburgh band arrived over the Erie and marched to the R. P. Knox grove on Main street, where the morning exercises were held.

F. C. Wolcott introduced the Hon. Geo. R. Sutherland as president of the day. After a few appropriate remarks, the president introduced Uri-Balcom, who recited in a pleasing manner a patriotic poem. The Declaration of Independence was read by Ray C. Ross. The President then introduced Wm. F. McNamara, Esq., of Corning, who delivered a masterful oration. The speech was pithy and patriotic, and was listened to attentively by a large number of people.

At 1:30 o'clock the fusileers appeared, bedecked in their usual fantastical dress, much to the amusement of the spectators.

The running races, the bicycle race, the potato race and the apple contest all furnished enjoyment for the onlookers.

The balloon ascension, at 6 o'clock, was not a success. When the balloon had reached a height of about 100 feet it caught fire and was burned; after another trial, and with a like result, the ascension was abandoned until later.

The fireworks in the evening were grand, and a fitting close to a very successful celebration of Independence Day. It has been many years since Campbell celebrated, and it will, no doubt, be many years before it celebrates again. It is well that Tuesday's celebration was a success.

FOURTH OF JULY SQUIBS.

About 3000 people were in town Tuesday. The merry-go-round took in about $100 Tuesday.

The Cottage hotel employed eight liquid dispensers.

We are sorry to learn of the narrow escape of Prof. Lightfoot.

The fusileers under the leadership of Charles Barrett were a success.

The Prattsburgh band won the admiration of all present, this of course includes the girls.

Owing to the non-arrival of their uniforms the Prattsburgh fire department was not present.

Edward Walsh was a man in the right place for marshal. His aids also did efficient service.

Frank Fisk fell while contesting in the sack race and injured his face severely.

Three dancing halls were kept busy from Tuesday morning until three o'clock Wednesday morning.

The base ball game resulted in a score of 23 to 16 in favor of the Campbell nine and against the picked nine.

No run-a-ways, no burnt fingers, or accidents of any kind were reported save the attack on officer Smith.

The sack race was won by George E. Crane, with Fred Austin second. The prizes were $3.00 and $2.00.

Refreshment stands of all kinds were numerous. We noticed on one of the signs "If sinners entice thee, consent thou not."

George E. Crane also won the potato race, securing therefor two dollars. Will Burdett was second and carried home one dollar.

The fireworks were a decided success, and as advertised they were fired in succession and not all at once as many thought would be done.

The running race was won by a horse owned by Floyd Fuller. The horse owned by J. L. Van Kirk was second. Purses $7.00 and $3.00.

The 1/4 mile bicycle race was won by Raymond C. Ross, with Uri Balcom, second. The prizes were valued at $3.00 and $2.00 respectively.

The P. D. band of Bath, came down the evening before the Fourth very jubilant. They returned rather disappointed. It wasn't her fault, boys.

The ladies of the M. E. church served warm meals and ice cream. They cleared over $50. The ladies of the Presbyterian society cleared over $40.

Crane who won two of the contests was until lately a member of the regular army stationed at Washington, D. C., and was in good training consequently he won easily.

The horse owned by Floyd Fuller won a second running race in competition with a strange horse from Addison that had been barred out of the race arranged by the committee.

The apple contest was unique and amusing. Apples were suspended by a string and the contestants, whose hands were tied behind them, were given two oranges for every apple they ate.

Good order was maintained through out the day and night, thanks to the efficient service of a dozen deputy sheriffs and special police. The only disturbance being the assaulting of officer Smith an account which appears in another column.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

—If you have anything to sell, advertise in THE HERALD's want column. Only five cents a line.

—B. M. Lawrence brought a load of good-looking young ladies down from Savona to spend the Fourth.

—We acknowledge with pleasure the receipt of an invitation to an "ox roast" at Corydon, Pa., on August 13th, and regret that we cannot be present.

—George E. Crane is at present the happiest man in town. He is the father of an eight-pound girl; and on Tuesday he won the sack race and also the potato race.

—The mail route from this place to Thurston and Risingville has changed hands. Andrew Moshier has retired and Leroy Chrisler now has charge of the mail-pouch.

—Among those who took in the excursion to Gettysburgh, Pa., Friday, we noticed Frank Brewster, Field Pooley, Franklin Velie, William Bowers, Ralph Stevens, Eliphaz Walling.

—Leroy Chrisler and Edward Halpin were arrested on Tuesday for assaulting an officer. Constable Charles E. Smith of Curtis, was the person attacked. Justice D. A. Stark examined the prisoners on Wednesday and they gave bonds for their appearance before the grand jury. Chas. W. Noles qualified as bondsman in the sum of $250.

—Rescue Hook and Ladder company of Bath, are to have an excursion to Niagara Falls, next Thursday, July 13th. This will be the first cheap excursion of the season to this popular resort. The excursion train will start at Corning, stopping at all stations to Mount Morris. The fare will be only $1.80. This will be a good chance for persons who desire to visit the Falls or Buffalo to do so. Train leaves Campbell at 7:30—D. L. & W.

PURELY PERSONAL.

—Egbert Shoemaker of Corning, was in town on Tuesday.

—John A. Worden has been in Rathboneville a part of this week.

—Mrs. Palmer of Coopers, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. B. Ross.

—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Howell of Corning, spent the Fourth in town.

—Samuel B. Balcom of New York city, spent the Fourth in town.

—Fenton Dimick of Buffalo, is spending his vacation in this vicinity.

—C. F. Jenks of Painted Post, came up to help us celebrate on Tuesday.

—Amasa B. White visited his wife, who is at the Elmira Sanitarium, on Thursday.

—Miss Alice Smith and A. B. DeGroat of Bath, spent the Fourth at J. L. Wygant's.

—Mr. and Mrs. Daniel M. Runner and son of Corning, visited at J. L. Wygant's this week.

—Mrs. Rock Bigsby of Santa Cruz, California, was in town last week calling on old friends.

—Helen and Julia Mathews of Elmira, have been visiting at Vincent Conkling's this week.

—Misses Kittie Cass, Blanche Cass and Clara Wylie of Bath, were at F. C. Wolcott's over the Fourth.

—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Clisdell of Painted Post, were the guests of Mrs. W. L. Hamilton, Tuesday.

—John L. Clawson of Buffalo, visited his sister, Miss Sarah Clawson, during the first part of this week.

—William Matoon of Weston, has been visiting his cousin, Mrs. Maurice Gould during the past week.

—Mrs. William Lancraft of Bath, visited at her father's, John McCabe, this week. Her two children accompanied her.

—Editors Wall of the Savona Review and McCall of the Bath P. D., were in town Tuesday shooting firecrackers. And they're alive to tell the tale.

—Mr. and Mrs. Guy M. Aber and children and Demorest W. Longwell of Bath, and Miss Vellette Aulls of Bradford, were guests at the home of the editor of THE HERALD on the Fourth.

WRITTEN WITH THE SCISSORS.

—Dansville is to have an electric railroad.

—The Steuben County Fireman's convention will be held in Hornellsville August 15 and 16.

—The basket factory at Elkland, Pa., will start about July 15th, employing twenty-five hands.

—The Duke of York and Princess Mary of Teck were married in London yesterday at 12:30. The Queen attended.

—The trustees of Bath have passed an ordinance that no bicycle shall be ridden faster than six miles an hour on the streets of Bath.

—The village of Avon pays one-half of the cost of the cement walks laid in that town. As a result they now have 60,000 feet of that kind of walk.

—The Avoca Advance makes light of the music furnished for the Fourth. It says: "It is better that we do as they should have done—keep still."

—It is reported that tickets to Chicago can be purchased in Penn Yan for $10 for the round trip. It would be cheaper to go to Chicago by way of Penn Yan.

—We take the following from the Corning Journal: "The wife of Leroy Gaylord of Monterey, has been keeping a boarding house in the Dr. May house on East First and Cedar streets for a couple of years, having come here to have their children attend school. As the daughter has now graduated, Mrs. Gaylord and family return to Mr. Gaylord's farm on the border of Monterey."

—Byron Smith, aged sixteen years was killed at the sash and blind factory in Addison last Saturday. His clothing in some manner caught in a belt and wound up in it.

—Herman Wakely, a young farmer of Austinburg, near Knoxville, Pa., committed suicide Wednesday morning, by hanging from a rafter. No cause for the suicide is known.

—Comptroller Frank Campbell and several of the other state officials, accompanied by Senator Hill, have been taking in the summer resorts along the Atlantic from the deck of a yacht.

—Over a hundred entries have been made for the opening races at the Babcock kite track, Hornellsville, July 11, 12, 13 and 14. This is rather more than were made for the trotting race at the Fourth in Campbell.

—A reckless bicycle rider in Addison, ran into John G. Hinman as the latter was coming out of a gate, last week Thursday. Hinman, who is fifteen years of age, was thrown to the ground and terribly bruised.

—The Steuben County Clerk's office has received in fees $2,113.33 in excess of expenses. This represents a net gain of that amount to the taxpayers, as heretofore the county clerk received all fees, whereas now he receives a salary.
