OUR CORRESPONDENTS.

Bradford Babbie.

One week of nice weather and now growers are beginning to growl. They talk about a drought.

Rev. Uri Mulford, Rev. George Sherer, L. E. Bartholomew and Miss Bertha Mulford left last Monday to attend the Epworth League convention, held at Addison, June 13th.

Children's Day was appropriately observed at the Baptist church last Sunday evening. Children's Day will be observed at the M. E. church on Sunday evening, June 18th.

L. E. Bartholomew called on friends at South Bradford, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Crane and daughter of Sonora, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Rolfe on Sunday.

Lee Scott and Mack Steegar of Watkins, are in town for a few days.

Mrs. Dennis of Wayne, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Lon Houck.

John Rolfe lost a valuable horse last week.

Benj. Green made his mother, at Tyrone, a visit on Saturday and Sunday.

There will be a tent minstrel show here, Wednesday and Thursday evenings, June 14th and 15th.

John Knowles was at Weston, Monday, taking some views.

We are afraid "Greens" won't agree with Matie.

A number of our village people visited Watkins Glen on Tuesday.

Miss Delia Taylor is very ill.

Chas. Ide is improving the appearance of his residence by a new veranda.

Zimmerman Bros. store will have a new awning this week.

June 13, 1893.

J. B. H. K.

Curtis Catch On.

Miss Gertrude Carpenter of Wyalusing, Pa., is visiting her many friends in this place.

John S. Curtis and wife have returned from Buffalo where they have been visiting since Saturday.

T. B. will get there. He is working early and late. His completed work looks fine.

Balcom Bros. have the finest looking tobacco crop in this section.

John T. Wilcox returned on Wednesday from a visit to his brother, Bradford Wilcox, of East Campbell.

Mrs. J. T. Quimby is seriously ill.

Risingville Ringers.

Quite a number from this place attended the fourth annual convention of the Corning District Epworth League, which was held at Addison, June 12th and 13th, and all report a good time.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Shauger, last Friday. It died the following day.

Mrs. M. A. Yost has returned from Hornellsville where she has been spending a few weeks with her son, C. E. Yost.

Miss Bulah Beaton of Limestone, N. Y., is visiting at her uncle's, J. L. Edsall, of this place.

Children's Day exercises, which were held at the M. E. church of this place last Sunday evening, were very successful. Our Superintendent, W. J. Richtmyer, is the right man in the right place, for he knows just how to please the children.

A meeting has been appointed, Wednesday evening of this week, for the purpose of making arrangements for repairing our M. E. church.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

—Come to
—Campbell,
—July Fourth.
—We celebrate.
—Old fashioned way.
—A jolly good time guaranteed.
—Our school closes next week.
—A large number of people attended the exhibition of Walker's minstrel show on Friday and Saturday evenings.

—John B. McCabe of Red House, N. Y., formerly of Campbell, has been appointed postmaster at the former place.

—George H. Curtis, formerly of Curtis, N. Y., has a position with the Original Vienna Bakery Cafe and Natatarium company at the World's Fair.

—Children's Day was fittingly observed in both churches at this place, last Sunday; being conducted in each case by the members of the Sunday school.

—The departure of Rev. E. P. Salmon on his vacation, as stated in last week's HERALD, was delayed by the Woodward-Platt wedding. He left on Thursday.

—The following are the officers of the Presbyterian Y. P. S. C. E., for the ensuing six months: President, Uri Balcom; vice-president, Miss Lodusca Clark; recording secretary, Raymond Ross; corresponding secretary, Thomas A. Sawyer; treasurer, Arthur S. Platt.

—We notice in the program of junior day, June 1st, 1893, at Lewis Academy, Wichita, Kansas, the names of Florence Smith and G. Russel Smith, children of the Rev. Geo. R. Smith, who was formerly pastor of the Presbyterian church here. They graduate next year.

—It was a very congenial company that met at the residence of William Smith at Curtis, on Saturday, to celebrate the birthday anniversary of Mrs. William Smith and Mrs. Ansel Hitchcock. The weather was all that could be desired, and an abundance of flowers added to the enjoyableness of the occasion. After all had partaken of a bountiful repast, they dispersed wishing the two who were entering upon another year, many returns of the day. Among those present from out of town, were: Mrs. Van Ness, Mrs. John Shaw and daughter, Maud, of Corning; Mrs. T. Maloney and daughter, Jennie, Mrs. George Shaw and daughter, Hattie, Mrs. Ansel Hitchcock and children, of Painted Post; Mrs. John Eygabroat and Mrs. J. T. Burrows, of Campbell; Misses Lizzie and Jennie Foster, of Savona; and Mrs. N. Hitchcock, of Cooper's Plains.

—Don't forget that in a town like Campbell you always feel at home, especially on a day like the Fourth will be. Moral.—Come.

—The Savona Dramatic Co. will give the war drama, "Won Back," at the Christian church in Thurston, this (Friday) evening. Admission 15 cents.

—Are you watching for the particulars of the Fourth of July Celebration at Campbell? We give a part of them this week in another column. Look for more next week.

—Announcement has been made of the coming marriage of Miss Jennie McMullen of Painted Post and Mr. R. S. Chatfield of Mt. Vernon, N. Y.—Corning Democrat.

—T. F. Pangburn, who was formerly connected with the school here, and who has lately resided in Denver, Col., is now in Tyrone, N. Y. He expects soon to visit this village.

—It was only a short time ago that potatoes were quoted at seventy-five cents per bushel. To-day we hear of potatoes being sold for twenty-five and thirty cents. A good many wish they had sold before.

—Supervisor H. Burr Willard, who is a member of the special committee of the Board of Supervisors on extraordinary repairs of the county buildings, was in Bath Tuesday on business in reference to said committee.

—On Monday the youngest child of James L. Van Kirk, a girl about three years old, was run over by a carriage containing three people. The child was playing by the road side, and did not notice the approaching carriage. Fortunately she appears to have suffered no serious injuries.

—Two young men in our village claim to be quite familiar with the various roads leading from Campbell, still we think they are mistaken. We are informed that they started out last Sunday, taking what they supposed to be a direct route to Thurston, but imagine their surprise when, after driving some time, they came in sight of Goodhue Lake. At any rate the boys will know the route to Goodhue Lake after this, and any one wishing a guide will do well to apply to them. They guarantee a road free from mud.

A Narrow Escape.

The limited vestibule of the D. L. & W., reaching here at 5:21 p. m., on Monday evening, struck and killed, at Cooper's Plains, the black horse, "Jen," belonging to the J. D. Hamilton estate. The horse has been familiar to all residents of this place for fifteen years, and was always known as "Hamilton's Jen."

—The horse was being driven by Misses Reba Hamilton and Minnie Alderman, who were out for a pleasure ride. The young ladies stopped and stood up in the carriage before reaching the crossing, but not seeing the train they drove on. When nearly upon the tracks a young man from Corning, who was coming in the opposite direction, called to them to look out for the cars. Then for the first time they saw the train. Miss Hamilton jumped to the ground and took the horse by the bridle, but was not able to hold it, and the horse started madly up the track in front of the approaching train; Miss Alderman leaping to the ground as the horse started, the carriage passing over her; and but for this act she would doubtless have met instant death.

The train struck the horse and carriage, killing the horse and smashing the carriage into smithereens. It is indeed fortunate that the young ladies escaped with so slight injuries; merely a general shaking up. The lap robe and cushion to the carriage are the only articles not completely demolished. A singular incident in connection with the accident, is that the whip was carried by the train from the scene of the accident to the crossing in this town, directly in front of the Hamilton residence, a distance of five miles.

JULY FOURTH.

We hope to be able by next week to publish in these columns a partial program of the celebration to be held here on Independence Day. There is no doubt but that it will be the biggest day ever witnessed in this village. The entire celebration is under the control of the following general committee, who have appointed various sub-committees: Chairman, Fred C. Wolcott; secretaries, Charles R. Woodward, Ross P. Myhers, A. H. Crouch and Robert C. Turnbull. Hon. George R. Sutherland will be president of the day, and William F. McNamara of Corning will deliver the oration. Music will be furnished in abundance throughout the day and evening, and there will also be two or more horse races, two bicycle races, a potato race, a sack race, and arrangements have been perfected for the appearance of 150 to 200 fusileers in appropriate costumes, under the command of Charles Barrett and ten capable assistants. A base ball game will be one of the attractions for the afternoon. Neither time nor expense will be spared to make this the biggest celebration to be held in this county, and in making your arrangements do not forget that you can have a much better time in Campbell than in any other place in the Southern Tier. We hope to announce soon that a rate of two cents per mile will be given on either railroad. For any information in regard to time-tables, races or the other contests, correspond with Charles R. Woodward, secretary of general committee.

Frank Kennedy, a gardener of Hornellsville, is putting out about a million and a half of celery plants. Hornellsville people must like celery.

Platt-Woodward.

Married, June 14th, 1893, by the Rev. E. P. Salmon, at the residence of the bride's parents in this village, Ira M. Platt and Stella M. Woodward. The bride is a highly esteemed young lady, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Woodward. She is a member of the Presbyterian church and choir, and has resided in this town for a long time—with the exception of about two years spent at Red House, N. Y.—where George D. Woodward was engaged in the mercantile business.

The groom is the son of George K. Platt, now of Hart, Michigan, who formerly resided here. Mr. Platt has had charge of the mercantile business of the late C. H. Bemis until the latter's death, and is a young man of push and enterprise, who has the respect and confidence of the entire community. The ceremony, which was private, was held at high noon, and the happy couple were driven to Bath, where they took the Lackawanna vestibule for Buffalo, Niagara Falls and other places. We wish them a pleasant voyage on the matrimonial sea.

ROUND-ABOUT NOTES.

—An extra session of Congress will be called early in September.

—John L. Osmond was electrocuted in Sing Sing prison on Monday.

—The salary of the postmaster at Bath will be $2,400 after July 1st, an increase of $100.

—Several South Dansville farmers have sheared their flocks and sold the wool at 15 to 23 cents.

—One hundred and fifty quarts of cream are shipped from Addison to New York city every day.

—The State convention of county superintendents of the poor will be held at Bath, next week.

—Commencing July 1st, there will be a daily mail service between Savona and South Bradford.

—Mrs. Frank Leslie has secured a decree of absolute divorce from her husband, William C. K. Wilde.

—Judge Andrews of the Supreme Court of New York, dismissed William R. Laidlaw's complaint in the suit to recover $50,000 damages from Russell Sage for being used as a shield against a dynamite crank.

—Mrs. Robert J. Knox, formerly Miss Anna Brush, and who was confined in Belem prison in Mexico, but was pardoned, has arrived at the home of her mother in Eaglesmere, Pa. She is much improved in health.

—Joseph Johnson, an inmate of the Elmira Reformatory, escaped from that institution Saturday night. He cut the electric light wires and in the darkness escaped more easily. He was captured at Corning six hours later.

—An exchange says a number of Allegany and Cattaragus county farmers are putting their farms to mustard seed, as they expect it will yield from three-quarters of a ton per acre, and the seed is worth from $150 to $200 per acre.

—The old Ford opera house in which President Lincoln was assassinated, which was being used as a government building, collapsed last week Friday. 400 clerks and laborers were at work in the building at the time. A large number were killed and very few escaped without injury.

—The State Board of Regents have made a collection of photographs of all the academies of the state for exhibition at the World's Fair, not omitting any, and are now engaged in making a collection of photographs of all the faculties of the same. It will be an interesting collection, and will be preserved at Albany after the fair is over.

—A hen belonging to Henry Shaver laid an egg the other day which was at first supposed to be a double yolk egg, it being nearly as large as a goose egg. On breaking the shell it was found to contain a yolk and white as usual, and also a perfectly formed egg (shell and all) of the usual size. It is a freak we never heard of before.—Savona Review.

—Mrs. Hattie Garrett and daughter, Lena, will start on Tuesday for Morence, Michigan, where they will spend a couple of months.
