OUR CORRESPONDENTS.

Bradford Babblings.

The exercises on Memorial Day, in this village, were a decided success. The Rev. A. G. Cole of Bath, at two o'clock took the platform, and delivered a very interesting speech. Very appropriate music was furnished by the school, assisted by some older singers. Following these exercises came the march to the cemetery, and the decoration of graves. There were many flowers and they were very beautifully arranged. The exercises closed with music by the Bradford cornet band.

Lloyd Stoddard, the manager of the Fair store at Savona, is at home seriously ill. His sister, Miss Allen Stoddard, is looking after the interests of the Fair.

Mr. Llewellyn Bartholomew called on friends at Corning and Addison, last week.

Rev. J. W. Miller, pastor of the M. E. church at Nelson, Pa., formerly of this place, called on his many friends here last week.

General agents for the McCormick and the Osborne make of agricultural machinery, were in town last week, looking after the interests of the several companies.

The school at West Tyrone, which has just completed a very successful term of ten weeks, under the direction of Prof. Jesse Whitehead, closed on Friday last.

The fishermen round about here are still fairly successful in their catch.

Edward Dewitt, accompanied by his sister, Josie, and Miss Andrews, of Monterey, was in town Sunday.

John Scott of Tyrone, visited his parents in this village over Sunday.

Mr. L. Decker of Monterey, called on friends here Sunday.

Rev. George Shearer on Saturday last caught a pickerel weighing three pounds and nine ounces. Who can beat that?

Rena is such a pretty name that we always name our dolls—Rena.

Rev. William Grover is holding meetings at the South Urbana church.

John H. Knowles left on Monday for Cameron, where he will take views on Memorial Day.

Mr. E. L. Knowles of Campbell, has had charge of the Knowles Bro's gallery here a part of this week.

Byron Shaw of Wayne, was in town Sunday.

New dresses are in great demand! Miss Mate Sutfin is kept busy supplying this demand.

It looks as though we could write up a wedding in our next letter. Whose will it be? Watch and see!

Thurston Topics.

C. A. Knox and wife are attending the World's Columbian Exposition.

Mrs. Lida Clarkson of Howard, is visiting friends in this place.

B. M. Babcock is building a fine shed for stock convenience. Ben is a good farmer, and keeps up with the times.

Misses Etta Sweeney and Mira Bowers, who have positions with the W. C. T. U., at Corning, are home on a vacation.

John R. Vose expects to visit the World's Fair in the near future.

Mrs. W. H. Rising is on the sick list.

Thomas Congdon and wife of New York city, called on friends at this place recently. They are on their way to Chicago.

Deacon Edwin Merchant and wife spent a few days with their daughter, in Bath, last week.

F. Peck and family are preparing to attend the reunion of the Peck and Sutton families, which takes place in Schuyler county next month.

Mr. Coffin, a lively old gentleman, eighty-four years of age, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Lydia Kelly.

F. M. Elliot is laying a stone wall for Daniel Weaver.

Will McDowell of Savona, is doing mason work for S. J. Benson.

A. Seamans is preparing to put a new roof on the residence of Mrs. A. Vose.

MEMORIAL DAY NOTES.

There was a large attendance.

The song service was finely rendered.

The flowers were plenty, beautiful and fragrant.

The ritual services of the G. A. R., was rendered very impressively.

The band boys added much to the interest of the occasion.

The address of the Rev. E. P. Salmon was a feast for the veterans; it was concise, comprehensive and intensely patriotic.

Commander Chapman and the whole Post seemed to understand the solemnity of the occasion.

T. A. Sawyer, F. W. Brewster and Isaac Bowers of Campbell, were present.

CORPORAL.

Coopers Clippings.

School closes Friday.

Born, Wednesday, May 24th, to the wife of Wm. Peterson, a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Pfeiffer and son of Horseheads, are visiting in town today, (Tuesday.)

Memorial Day was observed in Coopers with the usual exercises. Services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Phillips. Our lively band under the efficient leadership of Wm. Hummiston, is a credit to the village.

The members of the M. E. church will give an ice cream supper Friday evening, at the residence of John Miles. All are cordially invited.

The D. L. & W. work train has been in this vicinity for the past week distributing rails. The company are to replace the rails now in use with steel ones.

Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Allen of Painted Post, are called upon to mourn the loss of their daughter, Grace. She was a bright little seven-year-old, and was dearly beloved by all who knew her. She had been ill but a few days, and her death was sudden and unexpected. The funeral services were held Friday from the M. E. church at Painted Post. Mr. Allen was formerly pastor of the M. E. church here, and both he and his wife have the tender sympathy of our entire community. Dido.

ROBERT C. TURNBULL, EDITOR.

THE first issue of THE HERALD, which appeared last Friday, has been given a very cordial reception. We desire to thank all who have taken an interest in the establishing of a home newspaper, and we will try each week to furnish a paper worthy of their perusal.

"O, wad some power the giftee gie us,
To see oursels as others see us."

—Vol. I. No. 1 of the Campbell Herald made its appearance on Friday last. It is a neatly gotten up three column folio and is a credit to its editor, Robert C. Turnbull.—Hammondsport Herald.

—The Campbell Herald which is edited by R. C. Turnbull, who is well known in this city, made its first appearance yesterday. It is a newsy little sheet and Mr. Turnbull's friends in this city wish him success.—Corning Cor. Elmira Advertiser.

—The Campbell Herald, a neat little sheet edited by R. C. Turnbull, made its appearance yesterday.—Bath Plaindealer.

—The Campbell Herald is a beau ideal of a local enterprise. Its news is equal to that of a large pretentious sheet. It must take among readers of the village and surrounding country.—J. F. Hart, formerly editor Elmira Advertiser.

Memorial Day.

Memorial Day was never more fittingly observed in our little village than on Tuesday. The weather was all that could be desired and everything passed off very pleasantly. The business places were mostly closed and many of them wore the stars and stripes. Some of the residences also wore bunting.

At half past two the veterans and their friends assembled in the W. C. T. U. rooms and listened to appropriate exercises by the Loyal Temperance Legion under the supervision of the W. C. T. U. At three o'clock the march to Hope cemetery began, the veterans heading the procession. At the cemetery the graves of all the veterans of the late war were strewn with flowers, after which Rev. J. S. Brown delivered some very interesting remarks appropriate to the occasion. The line of march was then continued to the rooms of the W. C. T. U. where ice cream was served during the remainder of the afternoon and evening. The members of the G. A. R. being served free. Much credit should be given to the ladies of the W. C. T. U. for the efficient manner in which they conducted these exercises.

—Rev. Uri Mulford, late of Woodhull, but now of Bradford, Steuben, has been heard from again. He is now engaged in a controversy with the board of education over the question of religious exercises in the public schools and is furnishing much material to the newspapers.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

—July fourth.
 —We celebrate.
 —Every one come.
 —Bring all your family.
 —William Catchpole, Jr., is improving his residence on Church street by a coat of paint.
 —Campbell will celebrate the fourth. Further particulars in another column. Read it.
 —The supervisor has received the school money, and trustees can procure the same by applying to him.
 —R. P. Myhers, our produce commission merchant, shipped during the month of May thirty-four cars of hay.
 —O. F. Harris of the Cottage hotel, has a new trotter. Oscar says he'll soon be ready to give any of the speedy ones a trial.
 —A number of our townspeople attended the Memorial Day exercises at Thurston and Savona, besides attending the one at home.
 —G. H. Guinnip and wife, who formerly were connected with our school here, have been re-engaged at Cohocton for another year.
 —It is rumored that we are to have a new hotel somewhere in the upper end of the town. Nothing definite can be ascertained at present.
 —Agents made our housekeepers happy by distributing samples of their wares last week. Among the articles were "National Yeast," "Herb Teas," etc.
 —Benjamin Balcom of Curtis, lost a valuable throughbred sheep from a field near his house, Saturday night. Some "wolf" was after a "sheep's clothing" no doubt.
 —The ladies of the M. E. church served ice cream in the rooms of the W. C. T. U. on Saturday evening. The receipts will go towards improving the church building.
 —The roads in our village have been greatly improved by the use of one of the road scrapers. Our town owns six. No reason now why we should not have good roads.
 —Van Kirk's building is growing rapidly. He will soon be selling goods therein, and perhaps he may have the postoffice in there, too. But that will depend upon the new postmaster.
 —Don't forget the stereoptican entertainment, at the school house, to-night and tomorrow night. Admission, one night, 15 cents; both nights, 25 cents. Remember the school gets a percentage of the receipts.

—The funeral of Charles H. Peters, an account of whose death appeared in last week's HERALD, was held from the residence of Solomon Myers on Friday afternoon. School was closed for the afternoon, the scholars attending in a body. Rev. A. S. Gould officiated. The interment was at Savona.

—Prof. M. A. Grant of Binghamton, will give his illustrated lectures and stereopticon entertainments at the school building, on Friday and Saturday evenings of this week. These lectures are both interesting and instructive. A portion of the proceeds of the entertainment will be given to the school, and they will expend the amount thus received in purchasing needed articles for the school room.

The Ladies' Missionary Society will meet at the church at three o'clock Friday afternoon, June 2d.

The new Methodist church at Rexville, was dedicated May 23d. The service was conducted and the sermon preached by Rev. C. W. Winchester, Presiding Elder of the Corning district. Among the ministers present were J. R. Wells, John Wooten, F. H. Rowley, J. S. Brown and D. E. Stiles, the present pastor. The building committee reported the building to have cost eighteen hundred dollars; and that twelve hundred dollars had already been paid. The balance of six hundred dollars was then and there cheerfully subscribed, and the building dedicated free from debt. JOHN S. BROWN.

Sunday World's Fair.

We note with pleasure the action of the Attorney-General in reference to closing the gates of the World's Fair on Sunday.

The people have spoken in no uncertain tone, and through their highest legislative body have passed laws to forbid this desecration of the Sabbath. And yet, these officials, who should be subject to our National Government, deliberately plan to evade its mandates.

We hope that the Government at Washington will do its utmost to enforce this law, and see that the gates remain closed on Sunday.

Campbell Veterans' Association.

All members of the G. A. R. in this village belong to the post at Thurston, there being no organization of the G. A. R. here. The veterans believing that an organization of a similar character here would be beneficial to all concerned, met in the Knights of Honor hall after the exercises of Memorial Day and after speeches by Rev. E. B. Salmon, Rev. A. S. Gould and Amasa B. White, organized the Campbell Veterans' association with the following officers: President, Amasa B. White; vice-president, Field Poolley; secretary, Abram S. Gould.

The objects of the association will be somewhat similar to the G. A. R., but will in no wise conflict with it, many being members of both organizations.

Curtis Cuirassier.

Quite a number from this place attended the Memorial Day exercises at Painted Post.

The population of Curtis was increased by the arrival of a daughter last Saturday, at the home of V. Daniels. She tips the scales at 9 pounds.

School closes one week from Friday. The attendance has increased ten per cent. under the efficient management of the Misses Foster.

Some person or persons, unknown, took a sheep from Benjamin Balcom without his permission. He would like to know who it was, as they have done the same thing two or three times before this winter.

Henry Frey returned to work in the Corning glass factory, after having been laid up with a sore throat for the past week.

Mr. Uri Balcom has a Dane from Copenhagen, working on his farm.

Miss Emma Bond has begun work for Mrs. Curtis. **

We Celebrate,

Campbell is going to celebrate the fourth. At least it has been decided that we are to have a genuine, "old time" fourth of July. Just such a day as your fathers had when they were boys.

There will be speeches by prominent men, good bands will enliven the occasion with music, a greased pig will be turned loose, a greased pole will be erected with a prize at the top. There will also be a bicycle race to Curtis and return, by another route, making a distance of four miles. Potato race, egg race, horse races and many other contests and amusements will be provided.

Refreshment stands will be in abundance, or you can bring your dinner and a suitable place will be furnished in which to eat the same. In the evening, a vast amount of fireworks will be pointed skyward to mingle with the stars.

Every one come and help us enjoy the surprises the committee have in store for us. Watch this paper for full particulars.

-The Elmira National bank and also D. C. Robinson of that place, have failed. The Municipal Improvement Co. of the same place, has also passed into the hands of a receiver.

-Remember the Bath Centennial celebration, next week, June 6 and 7. Only one fare for the round trip on either road.
