Just Be Glad.

O heart of mine, we shouldn't
Worry so!
What we've missed of calm we couldn't
Have you know.
What we've met of stormy pain,
And of sorrow's driving rain,
We can better meet again
If it blow.

We have erred in that dark hour
We have known,
When the tears fell with the shower
All alone—
Were not shine and shower blent
As the gracious Master meant?
Let us temper our content
With his own.

For, we know, not every morrow
Can be sad;
So, forgetting all the sorrow
We have had,
Let us fold away our fears
And put by our foolish tears,
And through all the coming years
Just be glad.
—James Whitcomb Riley.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

—Tuesday,
—July fourth,
—Campbell celebrates
—In the good old-fashioned way.
—County court convened in Bath last Monday.

—A. H. Crouch has been doing quite a business in the strawberry line.

—Thomas Shannon of Bath, will be a candidate for member of assembly from this district.

—Dr. Charles S. Smith is the proud father of a ten-pound boy. The young Dr. made his appearance on Saturday last.

—The Erie and D. L. & W. R. R. have been applying their semi-annual coat of white wash to the fences and cattle guards.

—The show windows of Mrs. E. B. Williams look very neat. Their five and ten cent goods have been arranged very artistically.

—The entertainments on Friday and Saturday evenings at the school building, given by Prof. M. A. Grant of Binghamton, were very good and were well received.

—Lewis G. Lynn of Risingville, passed through here on Friday last, enroute for Caton, N. Y., to attend the convention of Good Templars. He is a delegate from the Risingville lodge.

—Fred Signor of Hornellsville, formerly of Bath and Miss Anna Green of Elkland, Pa., were married May 27th. Mr. Signor's friends in this village wish them happiness, long life and prosperity.

—Tobacco raisers in this vicinity are now busy setting their plants. The fact of their not having sold the last year's crop does not debar them from putting in a larger acreage than ever before.

—Wednesday, May 31st, John Dee of Corning, formerly of this village, was run over by a freight train in the Erie yards at Corning and was seriously injured. One leg was broken and he had several cuts about the head. He had been attending a dance and it is thought that while intoxicated he fell upon the track and rolled under a caboose.

—At a meeting of Hope Cemetery association, held June 1st, the following directors were elected: A. B. White, F. Pooley, J. Clawson and W. L. Hamilton. A meeting of the directors was held immediately afterwards and J. Clawson was elected president, Amasa B. White secretary and treasurer. Heretofore the association has been officered entirely by women.

—William Boyce can now supply you with fresh cream cheese.

—Jess Shufelt is improving his residence with a coat of paint.

—Don't forget the meeting tonight (Friday) to perfect arrangements for the Fourth of July celebration.

—Regents' examinations will be held next week in the various schools that are under the control of the state board of regents.

—C. H. McMaster of Bath, is a candidate for clerk of the board of supervisors. The election of clerk will take place July 18th.

—The trains of the Erie R. R. ran over the tracks of the D. L. and W. R. R. on Thursday, owing to a defective bridge near Coopers.

—We are desirous of having a correspondent at Sonora, Savona and Risingville. Address THE CAMPBELL HERALD for particulars.

—The ladies of the M. E. church will serve refreshments on the church grounds, July fourth. A tent will be erected for that purpose.

—Walker's great minstrel show will exhibit here Friday and Saturday evenings of this week. Admission only ten cents. Come all; don't miss it.

—The Ladies' Aid of the M. E. society will meet at the parsonage, Friday afternoon. There is work to be done and important business to be attended to. Supper at six.

—As yet the Republican postmasters at Atlanta and North Cohocton are doing business at the old stand.—Atlanta News. Nor yet has the Campbell P. M. turned over his keys.

—The will of the late Charles H. Bemis was admitted to probate this week. Miss Carrie I. Bemis, Mrs. Harriet E. Woodward and Mrs. Grace Bemis Curtis are named as executors.

ROUND-ABOUT NOTES.

—Canisteo has gas; that is, more gas than they had before.

—The Steuben County Epworth League will hold a convention in Addison, June 12th and 13th.

Dumas' Suggestion.

A melancholy author went to Dumas and moaned that if he did not raise 300 francs he was afraid he would have to charcoal smoke himself and his two children. Dumas rummaged his coffers at once, but could only find 200 francs. "But I must have three or I and the little ones are lost." "Suppose you only suffocate yourself and one of them then," said Dumas.—Exchange.

Discovery of the Galvanic Battery.

It is to the wife of Professor Galvani of Bologna that is due the credit of having discovered the electrical battery which now bears his name. Some skinned frogs lay upon the table, and noticing a convulsive movement in their limbs she called her husband's attention to the strange fact, who instituted a series of experiments, and in 1791 he laid the foundation of the galvanic battery.—Boston Herald.

WANTED!

A competent girl for general housework. Apply to Mrs. Geo. R. SUTHERLAND.

"JOHNNIE GET YOUR HAIR CUT,"
at the Barber Shop of
JOHN A. WORDEN, Campbell, N. Y.

One time when we's at aunty's house—
Way in the country—where
They's ist but woods, and pigs and cows,
An. all's outdoors and air!
An orchurd swing, and churry trees,
An' churries in 'em! Yes. an' these
Here red head birus steal all they please,
An' tetch 'em ef you dare!
W'y wunst, one time when we wuz there,
We et out on the porch!

Wite where the cellar door wuz shut
The table wuz, an'I
Let aunty get by me an' cut
My wittles up, an' pie.
Tuz awful funny! I could see
The red heads in the churry tree;
An' bee hives, where you got to be
So keerful goin' by—
An' comp'ny there an' all, an' we—
We et out on the porch!

An' I ist et p'surves an' things
'At ma don't 'low me to—
An' chickun gizzurds (don't like wings
Like Parants does, do you?)
An' all the time the wind blowed there
An' I could feel it in my hair,
An' its smell clover ever' where!
An' a old red head flew
Purt' nigh wite over my high chair,
When we et out on the porch!
—James Whitcomb Riley.

KIND WORDS FROM OUR NEIGHBORS.

The Campbell Herald is the name of a neat and newsy paper issued at Campbell by Robert C. Turnbull. Here's our Savona Review.

The last "long felt want" is the Campbell Herald, edited by R. C. Turnbull. The first number was issued Friday. It is a neat, well put up little sheet.—Avoca Advance.

A bright little three-column folio has reached our sanctum, the initial number of the Campbell Herald, Robert C. Turnbull, editor. Success to it.—Southern Steuben Republican, Woodhull, N. Y.

The Campbell Herald is the title of a new aspirant for journalistic honors and emoluments which made its appearance last week. In size it is diminutive, but it bears the impress of a practical printer and newspaper man, is bright and newsy, and should flourish.—Hornellsville Herald.

The Campbell Herald, a neat, newsy local newspaper published by Robert C. Turnbull at Campbell, has just reached our table. The editor shows good taste in printing just what his subscribers want—local news and correspondence, leaving out the huge mass of dead uninteresting matter usually found in "ready prints." Every family in Campbell, and every person wherever they may be, at all interested in the town or its people, should become a cash subscriber to the Herald.—Farmers' Weekly, Jasper, N. Y.

—The Presbyterian assembly decided to entertain the appeal in the Briggs case. This decision is against Dr. Briggs.

—Simon Bovier, a merchant of Bath, was relieved of $300 by sneak thieves during the Centennial celebration on Wednesday.

—Stove peddlers are in this vicinity roping in farmers with a steel range, for which they get $69.
