(ADDRESS,)

PURELY PERSONAL.

—E. F. Parker of Bath, was in town Tuesday.

—W. L. Hamilton was in Emporium, Pa., last week.

—Charles A. Knox of Thurston, was in town on Monday.

—James Kelly, formerly a Campbell boy, was in town Saturday.

—Charles Gross of Cuba, N. Y., spent Sunday at Mrs. Jane A. Fisk's.

—Wm. J. Yager, operator on the Erie at LeRoy, was in town, Wednesday.

—Mrs. Daniel Runner of Corning, visited her parents in this village last week.

—Leman Hough and Miss Lottie Lee were recently married by Rev. J. S. Brown.

—Patsey Bennett, who formerly resided here, was in town the first of this week.

—Miss Hattie Burlew of Savona, was the guest of Miss Reba Hamilton over Sunday.

—Dr. Phillips of Rathboneville, visited his daughter, Mrs. John A. Worden, over Sunday.

—Rev. J. W. Miller, formerly M. E. pastor here, now of Nelson, Pa., was in town Tuesday.

—Miss Millie Conkling has returned from Chicago where she has been spending the winter.

—Mrs. Mary F. Bemis of Hornellsville, is in town attending the funeral of the late C. H. Bemis.

—George Simmons and wife of Wayne, visited their daughter, Mrs. O. F. Harris, at the Cottage hotel last week.

—Prof. F. R. Place, who was formerly principal of the school here, has been re-elected supervisor of schools of Salem, N. J.

—D. J. White, night ticket agent of the D. L. & W. R. R. at Elmira, was in town on Friday of last week, shaking the hands of his many friends here.

—Alfred F. Pratt, son of Rev. S. W. Pratt, is home from Auburn Theological Seminary for the summer vacation. Mr. Pratt, Jr., was licensed to preach by the Presbytery that met at Addison recently.

—John L. Clawson of the firm of Bean, LaDue & Clawson of Buffalo, was in town on Monday. Mr. Clawson is a son of Jacob Clawson of this place, who was formerly in the mercantile business here.

—Among the officers of the First District Teachers' association, held at North Cohocton and Atlanta recently, we notice the name of Miss Minnie Newell of Campbell, as 2d vice-president. Miss Newell is a thorough educator and is meeting with splendid success in her work here. We are glad that the board of education have engaged her for another year.

CHARLES HORACE BEMIS.

Charles Horace Bemis died at his residence in this village on Monday evening, of consumption, after a lingering illness.

Mr. Bemis was born at Spencer, Mass., in 1823, the son of Charles and Laura Bemis. He was one of eight children, of whom the following three are survivors: James H. Bemis of Jefferson, Texas; John H. Bemis, of Warren, Pa.; and Miss Lucretia Bemis, of this village. In 1850, in connection with the late John K. Ford, he came to Campbell and engaged in the lumber business; also opening a store. This town has been his residence ever since. He was well and favorably known throughout the county having for several terms represented this town in the Board of Supervisors.

Besides the sister and two brothers before mentioned, there survive him, the following daughters: Mrs. Charles R. Woodward, Miss Carrie I. Bemis, of Campbell; and Mrs. John S. Curtis, of Curtis, N. Y.; his wife having passed to her reward three months previous to his death. The funeral was held at his late residence yesterday (Thursday) afternoon.

—At a meeting of the board of education on May 16th, the present efficient corps of teachers were engaged for another year. They are as follows: Miss Minnie B. Newell, preceptress; Miss Nellie E. Pooley, intermediate; Miss Minnie Alderman, primary. The action of the board of education meets with the approval of the residents of this village, as these instructors are held in high esteem. The following resolutions were also adopted:—

WHEREAS, Many children of school age residing in school district No. 2, town of Campbell, are idling away their time upon the streets, remaining outside the school room to the injury of themselves and others, and in violation of the laws of the state; therefore be it—

Resolved, That the board of education of said district enforce the law requiring such children to attend school, and call upon all parents, guardians and citizens of the district to co-operate with them in procuring the attendance at the public school therein of ALL the children of school age residing in the district.

Resolved, Further, that the clerk of this board cause copies of the foregoing to be printed for distribution throughout the district.

—Uri Balcom of Curtis, is a delegate to the County convention of Y. P. S. C. E. being held at Hornellsville to-day. He represents the Presbyterian society of this village.

—The Sunday schools of this village, have adopted resolutions protesting against the opening of the "World's fair" on Sunday.

—All subscriptions to this paper are payable in advance.

OUR VIEW OF THINGS IN GENERAL.

The editor believes he is filling a long felt want in supplying a local newspaper to the residents of Campbell and vicinity. We make no apologies for the present sheet, but place it in your your hands, simply saying:

"Be to our faults a little blind,
And to our virtues very kind."

The idea of this paper was conceived and executed in the space of a few short days, consequently, there will be improvements made in the near future.

We have little to promise, except that this paper will strive to promote the growth and success of Campbell and vicinity; to disseminate in a painstaking manner, news items of interest to its readers, ever espousing the cause of right. We shall aim at all times to speak as we feel, even should we provoke criticism, and shall always eschew favoritism.

In order to make the paper a success, it will be necessary to have the co-operation of the public. A newspaper representative may seem to be always present, but there are items of interest to the public that will sometimes fail to reach him. Do not find fault with the paper if you do not find some article you are looking for, but rather send to the editor such items of interest as may come to your notice. He may have some of the items you send already in form for the next paper. If so, no harm is done; if not, you have conferred a benefit on many readers. When you are ill you do not expect the physician to be already aware of that fact and come to you at once; neither should you expect the editor to be aware that your mother-in-law is visiting you. Go tell him.

To our merchants and business men: Our advertising columns are at your disposal. Come in and possess them! They will increase your trade and likewise your profits.

"Do not cry and weep for chances,
Chances that have passed away—
Opportunities neglected—
Grasp the chance you have to-day."

—The Bath Courier says that the highway commissioner of that town has purchased a stone crusher of the F. C. Austin M'fg Co. of Chicago, for $800. A similar machine would be a good investment for Campbell town officials.

—A careful perusal of the game laws does not show any season of the year in which it is unlawful to kill monkeys. Such may be the fate of the one which promenades the fence north of this office unless a severe attack of bronchitis causes a permanent loss of voice.—Bath Advocate. Better try a boot-jack first.

—Landlord King had a lively time breaking in a bicycle one day last week, and he finally got it so it would carry him.—Bradford correspondence Bath Advocate. You have our sympathy "partner." We've been there.

OUR CORRESPONDENTS.

COOPERS COURTESIES.

BRADFORD BUGLE.

Jesse Munson, wife and nephew, Jesse Curtis, are attending the funeral of Robert Y. Curtis, an uncle of Mr. Munson, at Meriden, Conn. Jesse Curtis will remain in the East.

Our usually quiet village was startled on the morning of Thursday last by the sudden news of the death of George Giveans. Upon leaving the house that morning, he was as well as usual, but not returning a search was instituted and he was found dead near the barn. The coroner's jury found that death resulted from heart failure, caused from over exertion. Mr. Giveans was born in New Jersey, April 11, 1830. About thirty years ago he moved to this place and has since resided here. The funeral was held from his late residence, on Saturday, May 19, 1893. Mrs. Giveans has the sympathy of her many friends in this her hour of affliction.

Memorial Day will be observed by the closing of all stores, by a game of base ball between the Tyrone and Bradford clubs, and by an address to be delivered by Rev. A. G. Cole of Bath.

Miss Myra Ackerson will personate Columbia at the M. E. church on Children's Day. Miss Rena Bailey will do likewise at the M. E. church in South Bradford.

John Knowles will continue his photograph gallery until July 1st, after which he will remove to Savona. Mr. Knowles has given entire satisfaction while here and we regret he is to leave.

May long life, peace and prosperity crown with success the married life of Clifford Boyce and Ella Bailey, is the wish of their many friends.

Melvin Frost and wife have returned from their wedding tour happy as ever.

Dr. Decker will move his family to this place the coming week. He will occupy a part of Rev. George Sherer's house.

Rev. Mr. Grover preaches at Monterey once in two weeks.

The spring hats are very handsome. Thanks to our milliner, Miss Moy.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

—Buyers are paying seventy-five cents per bushel for potatoes at Cohocton.

—Mrs. George R. Sutherland has returned from New York, where she has been spending the winter.

—Rev. E. P. Salmon will deliver the Memorial Day address before the Thurston G. A. R., next Tuesday.

—Miss Bertha L. Sutherland, who is attending the high school in Waverly, N. Y., has been elected president of the class of '94. The class has twenty-one members.

—Willis L. Hamilton, who recently purchased the John Runner farm for $16,000, has also purchased the "Warehouse lot," opposite the Erie depot, of Bemis & McKay.

—Samuel B. Balcom, a prosperous commission merchant of 86 Warren street, New York city, was in town last week. He is a son of Benjamin Balcom of Curtis, N. Y.

—William Boyce now has cigars for any of his friends that will call for them (ladies excepted). A son was born May 15th. Will says he'll surely vote the Republican ticket when of age.

—James L. Vankirk has moved the old "Muter" building back from the street and is building a new store building in front, 20x36. We are glad to see these evidences of prosperity.

—John M. Clawson has refitted the building, formerly occupied by D. A. Crandall as a harness shop, and has put in a neat stock of groceries. We wish him success in his new enterprise.

—Orrin Seaward died at the home of his son, Eli N. Seaward, on Sunday the 14th. Mr. Seaward has been in poor health for a long time, but the immediate cause of his death was paralysis.

—Mrs. J. L. Wygant, Mrs. Theodore Barrett and Mrs. John C. Hopkins attended the County convention of the W. C. T. U., held at Rathboneville on Wednesday and Thursday of last week. They were delegates from the Campbell W. C. T. U.

—Mrs. Kate E. Benedict died on Sunday, May 14th, at the home of W. B. Runner. The funeral was held at the residence of Mr. Runner on Monday afternoon. The remains were taken to Jerusalem on Tuesday for interment. Mrs. Benedict was an aunt of Mrs. Runner and had been in our midst but a short time.

—Rev. J. S. Brown was at Rexville on Tuesday at the dedication of the new M. E. church at that place. He was formerly pastor of that church, coming from that place here. It was mainly through the efforts of Mr. Brown that the funds for the building of this church were raised. He will tell us something about it next week.

—Towlesville is to celebrate July 4th. By-the-way, why can't Campbell? It has been a long time since this slumbering village has celebrated the "Ever Glorious." Let's celebrate this time in a manner that will arouse the patriotism of the youngsters and lead them to think that there is a meaning in the "Fourth." That we appreciate our liberty, the same liberty that our forefathers fought for. THE HERALD will be glad to receive any contributions on this subject and hopes the sentiment will be such that in the next issue a meeting may be called to take action on the matter. What do you think about it?

—Our little village was the scene of much pleasure on the evening of May 17th. The young ladies had made many preparations for a calico hop that was to be given by them on that evening, in the Knights of Honor hall. At an early hour the guests began to arrive and from nine o'clock until the wee small hours of the morning, the hall was a scene of much gaiety. Refreshments were served by Caterer Barrett of the Temperance House, who fully convinced the young people that he understood the art of serving them with good things. Among the out of town guests we noticed Messrs. Ellsworth Baulch, A. Ellas McCall and Dr. Asa Lantz of Bath; Messrs. Will' McIntosh, Martin Hooley, — Clinton and Misses Edith Wigg, Nancy Reeves and — Blackburn of Corning; Messrs. Dee, Shaver and Lawrence of Savona; Miss Anna Mulvihill of Coopers, John Knox of Thurston and John D. Turnbull of Elmira.

ROUND-ABOUT NOTES.

—Commencement at Cook Academy, begins June 3d, closing June 8th.

—The Savona Review is five years old. May long life and prosperity be meted out to it.

—The Soldiers' Home band will accompany the excursion to Gettysburg July 1st, 2d and 3d.

—The former station agent at Atlanta, Rev. J. H. Masten, is now assistant to the director of the Indian exhibit at the World's fair.

—Several United States postoffice inspectors are in this and adjoining counties looking for the persons who are robbing post-offices.

—Hon. D. C. Howell died at his home in Bath on Monday evening, May 15th, aged 75 years. He was well-known all over the county.

—A Keeley cure has been established at the Soldiers' Home and is meeting with success. Veterans, not members of the Home, can take the treatment at a cost of not to exceed twenty-five dollars.

—Bath is to celebrate its centennial, June 6th and 7th. Extensive preparations have been made and an enjoyable time is anticipated. Fare one way for the round trip on both Erie and D. L. and W. R. R. Souvenir teaspoons of the centennial can be obtained at Sedgwick's, the jeweler, or of Mrs. W. W. Averell.

[Special].—Charles H. Peters, aged 14 years, a son of David S. Peters, of Savona, and a grandson of Solomon Myers, of this village, was thrown off a load of hay, run over by the loaded wagon and killed, about 5 o'clock this afternoon. A HERALD representative visited the scene of the accident this evening and learned the following facts: Solomon Myers, accompanied by his grandson, "Charley" Peters (as he was called), had gone to the farm of Mrs. Maggie Shaver, about two miles from town, nearly midway between this village and Savona, for a load of hay. They had finished loading the hay on to a wagon box, and Charley, who was on the load, started to drive down the incline from the barn floor to the road. The barn floor is elevated about ten feet from the road. Mr. Myers staid behind to close the barn doors. After closing the doors he turned and saw that Charley had fallen off and had been run over. The horses had started down the incline at a rapid rate, and it is supposed that in his endeavor to check their speed he fell off and the wagon passed over his abdomen. He was carried to the residence of Mrs. Shaver, near by, but expired before the physician, who had been summoned, could arrive. Charley has lived with his grandfather ever since his mother's death, which occurred when he was about four months old. Charley was a bright little fellow, small of his age. He was always courteous and kind, a member of the M. E. Sunday school, and will be greatly missed by his playmates, school friends and others who knew him. He has gone to join his mother in the better land.

May 24, 1893.
