The Town of Campbell has an open seat on the Zoning Board of Appeals.

All zoning boards of appeals are directly given appellate jurisdiction by state law. Appellate jurisdiction is the power to hear and decide appeals from decisions of those officials charged with the administration and enforcement of the zoning ordinance or local law. This is the primary function and purpose of a zoning board of appeals in zoning administration, and encompasses the power (if an appeal is properly taken to the board) to interpret the zoning ordinance or local law and to grant variances.

This position is a volunteer position and meets between 1-3 times per year, and is a good position for someone who would like to get involved with their community government and would like to learn more about the rules and regulations behind the Town Zoning Laws. There is no education requirement to apply to this position as the town has a list of trainings that ZBA members are able to attend in person or on-line to complete the (4 hour) yearly education requirement.

Please submit a letter of interest to the Town Clerk by January 31, 2019 if you are interested in serving your community in this way.
